

4-H COMMUNICATIONS EXHIBITS CHOSEN FOR IOWA STATE FAIR

CARROLL, IOWA—4-H communications exhibits were judged Monday, July 18 at the Carroll County Fairgrounds in Coon Rapids. Exhibits were presented at the Carroll County Fair on Thursday, July 21. Two exhibits will represent Carroll County 4-H in the communications department at the Iowa State Fair in Des Moines on August 18th.

Educational Presentations are talks or demonstrations given in front of an audience. Maria VanHorn, “Why Clarinet Reeds Differ”; Rebekah Meshek, “Bucket Calf 101”; and Hailey Brasel, “Will You Be Ready?” received blue ribbons for their educational presentations.

Working exhibits are walk-through demonstrations. Jessica Venner and Mikayla Ankenbauer, “Handy Critters” received State Fair recognition for their working exhibit.

Share the Fun entertainment acts were delivered by Maria Van Horn, “JELLO” and Halbur Lads and Lassies 4-H Club, “Minute to Win It.” Maria received a blue ribbon for her act and Halbur Lads and Lassies will advance to the State Fair.

Communications Exhibits provide 4-Hers the opportunity to share their knowledge with others while learning to communicate to others by giving an organized presentation. Youth develop life skills through preparation including organizing material, presenting information, and gaining courage.
