General Rules and Regulations – Open Class All Departments

1. Exhibitors DO NOT have to be residents of Carroll County
2. Registration must be done between 8 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Friday of the Fair
3. NO ENTRY FEES
4. Exhibits remain the property of the exhibitor, unless otherwise stated under division rules. Any exhibit not removed after 2 p.m. on Sunday of the Fair becomes the property of the Fair Association, unless previous arrangements have been made.
5. All entries will be protected to the best of our abilities, but Carroll County Fair Association is not responsible for damages or losses incurred.
6. Only one entry per exhibitor per class
7. All entries need to be grown by and/or designed and constructed by entrant, as each class and lot dictates in the rules. Articles in the fabric classes, which have won prizes at the fair previously, may NOT be entered again.
8. No premiums for a division need be given if entries do not meet necessary demands for an award.
9. Judges decisions are final. Exhibitors may watch and listen during judging.
10. Best Over-all ribbons will be awarded to one outstanding exhibit in each of the following areas: Flowers, Foods, Farm Products, Clothing/Needlework, Fine Arts, Photography, and Junior.
